ATTORNEY ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Kent Reiersen, of Williston, has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in North America. The induction ceremony at which Reiersen became a Fellow took place recently before an audience of approximately 570 persons during the recent 2016 Spring Meeting of the College in Maui, Hawaii.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers of diverse backgrounds, who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5800 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. The College maintains and seeks to improve the standards of trial practice, professionalism, ethics, and the administration of justice through education and public statements on important legal issues relating to its mission. The College strongly supports the independence of the judiciary, trial by jury, respect for the rule of law, access to justice, and fair and just representation of all parties to legal proceedings.

The College is thus able to speak with a balanced voice on important issues affecting the legal profession and the administration of justice.

Reierson is a partner in the Williston office of the regional law firm of Crowley Fleck and has been practicing in Williston for 36 years. Reierson is an alumnus of the University of North Dakota School of Law. Reierson has also been recognized as an experienced trial attorney by Benchmark Litigation, Super Lawyers, Chambers and Best Lawyers. Kent practices primarily civil litigation in all state and federal courts in North Dakota and is a Board Certified Civil Trial Specialist by the National Board of Trial Advocacy.
